

Young Women with a BRCA Gene Mutation

Supportive Services at the NYU Clinical Cancer Center

Have you been told you have a BRCA Gene Mutation?

Would you like to meet others who have a BRCA mutation to talk about the emotional impact, decision making, and concerns about the future?

Please Join us for a Psychosocial Support Group
Focused on the Needs of Young Women.

This group will meet at the NYU Clinical Cancer Center,
Thursdays at 6:00 p.m. (once per month)

To register and for more information, please contact facilitator:

Lisa Sevanick, LCSW
212-731-5110

